Privacy Notice – Paper/Manual

What do we use personal information for?

Your information is only used to help us to help you get the right services and, if we were to use your information for another purpose, we will normally ask you first. Sometimes we may use your information for another purpose. For example if we have a legal duty to do so, or to provide you with the right services, or if there is a risk of serious harm or threat to life.

Allowing your details to be used across other council services

We're making changes to improve the quality of everyone's experience when they contact us.

Over time we aim to have one record containing basic details, and information about transactions. By allowing your details to be used across other council services, you're allowing us to re-use information. This means we won't ask you to repeat basic information all the time, which will help save time when you contact us in the future.

Please note: the purpose of this record is not to record the services you have received. Should you decide not to allow your data to be shared in this way, your right to receiving the Council services that you are entitled to will not be affected.

Sharing your information with Contractors, Partners and Other agencies

Sometimes when dealing with your request, we may pass your details on to third party service providers who are contracted to, or working in partnership with, Bristol City Council. These third parties are obliged to keep your details secure, will use them only to fulfill the request and will dispose of the information at the appropriate time.

We are required by law to protect the public funds we manage so we can prevent and detect fraud. To do this we may share information provided to us with other bodies responsible for auditing or managing public funds. For more information about this please visit <http://www.bristol.gov.uk/page/council-and-democracy/audit-commission-national-fraud-initiative-nfi-and-other-data-matching>.

Your Rights

Please note that in agreeing to share these details you have not forfeited your rights as prescribed under the Data Protection Act 1998. The Council will continue to apply the same level of care to safeguard your privacy as we always have done.

How to access Information the Council holds on you

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you can make a formal request for the following information:

- clarification that your personal data is being processed by the Council
- a description and copy of such personal data
- the reasons why such data is being processed
- details of to whom they are or may be disclosed

If you wish to access information held by the Council about you, please email the Data Protection/Freedom of Information Team at foi@bristol.gov.uk. Or write to The Data Protection Officer, Bristol City Council, City Hall, College Green, Bristol, BS1 5TR.
