

Privacy Notice

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and other regulations including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), which means it determines what your personal data is used for and why it is collected.

The purpose of this privacy notice is to tell you about how we collect and use personal data in connection with our service. We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we do this, we will communicate any changes to you and publish the revised privacy notice on our website.

Our main address is City Hall, College Green, Bristol, BS1 5TR and our contact details can be found on Bristol City Website

What data we need to collect and use?

To provide this service, we will collect and use some or all of the personal information below:

- Name
- Email address

How do we use your personal information?

- We use this information for one or more of the following reasons:
 - To send you news and updates via email on the Bedminster Green Regeneration Project.
- To make you aware of opportunities that may arise as a result of the Bedminster green Regeneration Project
- To promote the activities of local organisations to the Bedminster Green Regeneration Project

Who else might we share your personal information with?

Sometimes we may need to share your information, but we will only do so where we have a valid legal basis to share data. We will only share the minimum information for each circumstance. We may share some of your personal information with one or more of the following:

- Mailchimp (Intuit)

We may also use data processors to support our activities, for example by providing systems we need or delivering services on our behalf. These processors are:

- Mailchimp (Intuit). Read Mailchimp \(Intuit\) Privacy Statement

Will my personal data be sent outside the UK?

- Your personal data will not be sent outside of the UK.

No personal information is routinely sent or held outside the UK. Should the transfer of personal information outside the UK become necessary, it will only take place if permitted by law, and then only where there are appropriate safeguards in place to protect the data.

What is the legal basis for our use of your personal information?

The information below shows the legal bases we are relying on to use your personal or special category (sensitive) personal information.

You can see a list of the full legal bases we may rely on by looking at our main privacy notice.

Personal information

Our legal basis for processing your personal information is that of Article 6(a) of the UK GDPR – Consent.

How long we will keep your personal information?

We will hold this information for as long as it is needed, or if we are required to do so by law. In practice this means that your personal information may be retained for the relevant period listed below:

- For the duration of the Bedminster Green Regeneration Project

After this, your personal information will be deleted.

Your rights as a data subject

The law gives you a number of rights to control what and how personal information is used by us, including the right to access a copy of your personal information and withdraw your consent when we rely on your permission to use your personal data.

Full details about how we use and share your data and your rights can be found on our Corporate Privacy Notice. If you are unable to access our digital Privacy Notice, please contact Citizens Services whom will be able to send a hard copy.
